because editing matters

Annual Renewal Notice #1

Dear <<First Name>>,
No one will argue that digital technologies have changed copyediting dramatically. And we can all agree, I'm sure, that the loss of copyediting jobs has been quite a blow.

But the technological disruption has also made this an amazing time to be a copyeditor.

Our June–July issue of Copyediting will not only celebrate the positive changes in our field but help you keep making those positive changes.

To receive our next issue—along with five more information-packed issues in the next year—renew by June 8, 2017!

Renew Your Copyediting Membership Now!

In addition to a full subscription to our premier newsletter, your membership also includes:
